

A dance inspiration

Sir,

I would like to congratulate all those concerned with the Dance Cyprus performance of A Pair of Wings Please and Sirens in Nicosia last week. It was simply breathtaking and being a seasoned ballet attendee of companies such as the Royal Ballet, The English National Ballet and the Bolshoi, I can only tell you that I came away on a real high having witnessed such energy, enthusiasm and talent, here in Cyprus. The choreography was phenomenal and the interesting mix of live and recorded music worked superbly. My teenage daughter and her friend who accompanied our party were really inspired and I am sure they are not the only ones who will be positively affected by the production. It gives such hope to those youngsters who aspire to work in the arts, but have felt that there was, to date, little opportunity for them on the island.

Please may we have more as soon as possible and congratulations to all those involved.
